Kim Carpenter's Art for the Theatre

[testimonial_slider style="default"][testimonial title="Testimonial" id="1470026573977-4" name="Edmund Capon" quote="There is a wonderful kind of youthful fresh spontaneity about Kim's work ... It hasn't been run through the terrible mill of endless analysis, and too much rigour, which tends to drain the life out of things. Instead it is fresh and fruity – and honest." tab_id="1474023794576-3" subtitle="Former Director, The Art Gallery of NSW"] Click the edit button to add your testimonial. [/testimonial][testimonial_slider]Kim Carpenter's exhibition, Art for the Theatre, is a survey of works Carpenter has drawn over 25 years, with drawings and paintings of storyboards, characters, production ideas and 3D models of his fantastical stage creations: underwater dragons, spider spirits, blind cats drawn for and from shows Carpenter often adapted, designed and at times directed.
